* * Letters and Newspapers are delivered out of the Office every day (except Sunday) at all hours from the rising to the setting of the Sun.

Newspapers to be forwarded by Mail, should be enclosed in a cover and left open at one end, and the number of free Papers, and of those for subscribers respectively, endorsed on each package; and all Newspapers for each Post-Office, should be enclosed in one package, provided they do not exceed thirty in number. If a letter or memorandum in writing, is contained in any Newspaper, or package of Newspapers, the person who deposits the same forfeits five dollars, and the package becomes liable to Letter postage.

Letters to be sent by Mail, should be addressed to the places of their destination in the clearest manner: they should always be directed to the nearest Post-Office, if the person to whom addressed does not reside where there is an Office; and the name of the State ought not to be omitted. Letters are often mis-sent from their ambiguous direction: a punctual attention to this rule may prevent delays and miscarriages.

Letters to be forwarded by Mail, ought to be delivered at the Office at or before the time of closing, to ensure their going by the Mail of the day; as before the departure of a Mail, all Letters composing it are to be rated and marked, accounts of them entered, and those accounts made out, to be transmitted to the respective Post Offices—and Newspapers should be delivered at the Office an hour at least previous to the hour of closing the Mail.

If an abatement of Letter postage be claimed, the Letter must be opened in presence of the Post Master, or one of his Assistants; and if such Letter should, instead of being overcharged, happen to be undercharged, the deficiency must be made up by the applicant.

All Letters which are lodged to go by the British Packets, should be distinguished by writing Per Packet—for there are Places of the same Name in the United States, similar to those in Europe.

Letters going out of the United States, must be paid for when lodged in the Post Office.
